

Idaho Chapter, Federal Bar Association

BROWN BAG CLE PROGRAM

550 WEST FORT STREET . BOISE . IDAHO . 83724

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Wednesday, January 21, 2009 . 12:00 to 1:30 p.m.

Wendy Olson
President, Idaho Chapter
Federal Bar Association

Please join members of the Idaho Chapter of the Federal Bar Association for a brown bag CLE program, which will be held on Wednesday, January 21, 2009 at the James A. McClure Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse in Boise, Idaho.

Topics will include an overview of the U.S. Attorney's Office's criminal enforcement priorities in Idaho, best practices for criminal defense attorneys in working with the U.S. Attorney's Office, i.e., what to expect in discovery, and what to expect regarding the U.S. Attorney's Office approach to uniform plea agreements, the United States Sentencing Guidelines, and commonly charged federal criminal statutes.

Cost:

$20.00 for Idaho Chapter members; and
$35.00 for non-Chapter members

Bring a Sack
Lunch—Drinks will be Provided

To Register:

Susie Boring-Headlee
(208) 334-9373

2009

EXECUTIVE BOARD

- ◆ Wendy Olson, President
- ◆ Kim Wherry Toryanski
President-Elect
- ◆ Bradley Williams
Secretary
- ◆ Larry Prince, Treasurer
- ◆ Barry McHugh and
Robert Schwarz
CLE Program co-Chairs
- ◆ Dean Arnold, Membership
- ◆ Larry Westberg
Chair, National Delegate
- ◆ Julie Tetrick
Young Lawyers
- ◆ Theodore Creason
Law School Liaison
- ◆ Trudy Hanson Fouser
Pro Bono / Special Events
- ◆ Susie Boring-Headlee
Executive Director

The Purpose of the Federal Bar Association —

- To serve as the national representative of the Federal legal profession;
- To promote the sound administration of justice;
- To enhance the professional growth and development of members of the Federal legal profession;
- To promote high standards of professional competence and ethical conduct in the Federal legal profession;
- To promote the welfare of attorneys and judges employed by the Government of the United States;
- To provide meaningful service for the welfare and benefit of the members of the Association;
- To provide quality education programs to the Federal legal profession and the public;
- To keep members informed of developments in their respective fields of interest;
- To keep members informed of the affairs of the Association, to encourage their involvement in its activities, and to provide members opportunities to assume leadership roles;
- To promote professional and social interaction among members of the Federal legal profession.

Pre-registration: Susie_Boring-Headlee@id.uscourts.gov